Paradise lodge is an eco-lodge located in Arbaminch, Southern Ethiopia with 203 rooms most of which are based on the iconic Tukul architectural design.

"Tukul"... means Grass thatched among the Konso & Gamo people of Southern Ethiopia.

This signature "Tukul" architecture room design constructed in conical (rondavel) shapes using natural materials, such as wooden poles and grass or savannah straw thatching makes these rooms visually stunning!

The intricate designs and patterns woven into the thatched roofs showcase the artistry and craftsmanship of the Konso people. These homes are not only functional but also reflect the rich cultural heritage and traditions of the community.
